Meeting for Mr. Robert R. Bowie
Assistant Secretary of State for Policy Planning

THE STATE OF THE NATO ALLIANCE:
THE RECENT COUNCIL MEETING

Thursday, December 27, 1956
5:15 P. M.

The Council on Foreign Relations has arranged a meeting for Mr. Robert R. Bowie on Thursday, December 27, at 5:15. Mr. Bowie will discuss the present situation in the Atlantic Alliance and particularly the recent Council meeting at Paris.

Mr. Bowie has been Director of Policy Planning for the State Department since 1953, and has advised Secretary Dulles at most of the specially significant international conferences since that time, including the recent Paris meeting. Mr. Bowie was with the U.S. Army during World War II and was an assistant to General Lucius D. Clay in Germany. In 1946 he became Professor of Law at Harvard and was general counsel and special advisor to Mr. John J. McCloy as U.S. High Commissioner to Germany from 1950-51.

Tea will be served at 5:15. Mr. Bowie's talk will begin at 5:30, and the meeting will adjourn after discussion at 6:30. Mr. John C. Hughes will preside.

We hope you will be able to attend. Please mail the enclosed card if you plan to come.

William Henderson
Director of Meetings
